Digital Parenting in the Age of AI Part II

Featuring San Marino High School Media Arts Instructor
Dave Basulto, and Advanced Filmmaking Students
Gianni Camera and Ivan Yang

Join award-winning educator David Basulto for an eye-opening, practical session designed to help parents harness the power of AI tools like ChatGPT to support learning, spark creativity, and reduce stress at home.

Whether you're helping your child write an essay, plan a family trip, or prepare for college, AI can be a powerful partner. This talk will demystify tools like ChatGPT, introduce fun and useful ways to integrate them into daily family life, and share tips for guiding kids toward responsible, ethical use.

Thursday,
October 2
at 7:00 pm
